

11. EDUCATION

There were 3,289 academic establishments in Lebanon enrolling 1,174,756 students and recruiting 117,756 teachers/professors and 5,342 managers during the academic year 2006/2007.

Graphs made by CAS based on CRDP (2006-2007) data

Education breakdown in 2006/2007

Among the 3,289 institutions, there were 85.5% schools, 13.3% vocational schools and 1.2% universities and higher education establishments.

Top five countries of arrivals and departures in 2007

Type of establishment	Establishments	Students	Professors / Teachers	Managers
Schools
Public schools	1,393	326,503	39,945
Private free schools	379	124,281	6,626
Private schools	1,040	467,093	41,186
Vocational education
Public vocational schools	85	37,446	9,219	391
Private vocational schools	354	62,285	7,224	440
Higher education
Public universities	1	69,745	4,577	1,712
Private universities	37	87,403	8,979	2,799

Table made by CAS based on CRDP (2006-2007) data

As for the sex of all types of education students and personnel, 50.6% of students were females and 63.9% of all personnel were females.

As for schools, 2.0% of schools were established ex ante 1920 and 33.6% ex post 1986. 35.6% of schools are public, 13.5% are private free and 50.9% are private. 2.6% are pre-school schools, 27.6% are elementary, 44.2% are intermediate and 25.6% are secondary. 55.7% of schools provide education in French language, 21.6% in English language and 22.7% in both languages.

As for students, 16.4% are in pres-schools cycle, 49.1% are in the elementary, 21.1% are in the intermediate and 13.4% are in the secondary. Another reading of student's distribution shows that 35.6% are enrolled in public schools, 13.5% in private free schools, and 50.9% in private schools. While, 63.3% are French educated and 36.7% are English educated.

Data Sources:

- Center of Research and Teaching Development (CRDP) (2007).